

Competitor: A driver, car owner, crew member or other person who is associated with any team who participates competitively in any Shangri-La II Speedway racing event.

Disqualified: The car and any Competitor affiliated with it will be treated as if it did not start the race, thus forfeiting any monies, awards, and championship points it may have otherwise been entitled to.

Driver/Team: Any driver or team that competes in an event at the Speedway.

Event: Any event that takes place at the Shangri-La II Speedway, which includes the designated race as well as all periods of registration, inspections, time trials, qualifying races, practice sessions, post-race inspections and possible related rain or postponed dates.

OEM: Original Equipment Manufacturer

Official: Any individual(s) appointed by the Shangri-La II Speedway Management, Promoter or Race Director to officiate as an employee or independent contractor for a race event.

Stock: Stock refers to stock manufacturer's equipment for the car you are building, Stock refers to parts made by GM, Ford, Chrysler, etc. It does NOT refer to aftermarket speed parts varying from stock dimensions. Stock means a factory ID number must be in place. Stock means original equipment parts for your car.

Traction Control: Traction Control of any type is strictly prohibited. Any team found to be in possession of any traction control device will be disqualified and lose all winnings for that event. The team will also be stripped of all season points and may be banned from competition at the discretion of Shangri-La II Speedway Management.

Shangri-LA II Speedway: Any reference to Shangri-La II Speedway premises, property and/or facilities contained within this document shall be defined to include the premises, property and/or facilities of Skyview Drags as well.

Note:

ANY ITEMS NOT DESCRIBED AS ALLOWED IN THESE RULES SHOULD BE DETERMINED AS ILLEGAL UNLESS SHANGRI-LA II ISSUES A TECH BULLETIN EXPRESSING OTHERWISE.

Any part found illegal will be confiscated and become the property of Shangri-La II Speedway.

Any competitor found to have an illegal part will not be allowed to compete in any event until that part is surrendered to the speedway.